

Cotesbach

QUATTROCENTENARY

Saturday 7th July

ONE VILLAGE FIVE VENUES

Featuring a main stage, green world forum, green screen, historic pageant, puppet shows, exhibitions & displays.

ORGANISED WALKS

From Lutterworth, Lilbourne or Hillmorton (3 counties)

Dress up in 17th century gear & bring a gardening tool

LIVE MUSIC

Live music provided by local bands, musicians and special guests including Rory McLeod, Sally Barker, The Backroom Boys and The Endless Knot

LIVING HISTORY

Demonstrations throughout the day to include 17th century re-enactments, pottery, black-smithing, wattle & daub wall building, cookery, herbalism, woodworking, spinning, dyeing, weaving & craft activities for children

PUBLIC SPEAKERS

Sharing views, knowledge & advice on land, food, energy, climate change and the next 400 years

LOCAL PRODUCE

Food and craft stalls provided by local producers

TICKETS

Adults (12 & under free) £4 in advance £5 on the day. Available from Gardenbarn, Naturally Good Food or via the website www.cotesbach.net

